

15734
1717

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
LIBRARY

THE LOMBARD GIRL
Her Home and Her Life

The Lom- bard Girl

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.

Her Home
and....
Her Life

The Lombard College Bulletin

Issued Bi-Monthly by Lombard College, Galesburg, Illinois

Series VII—Number IV

Entered at Postoffice as second-class mail matter

"AN IMPULSE
"TO MATE ME WITH THE SPRING."

From My Window

I sit and dream and think
 The mild, delicious spring ;
 My thoughts go wandering :
How every leafy chink
 Lets in a bit of blue,
 The All-love shining through.

My thoughts go wandering :
 Not frivolously, sirs ;
 An impulse in me stirs,
To mate me with the spring,
 In calling everything
 To bud and bloom and sing.

An impulse in me stirs—
 Oh, do not smile at me
 Who long to do and be—
A girl hath longings, sirs,
 As wide and free as you
 To dare and be and do.

THE HALL PARLORS

The Lombard Girl---Her Home and Her Life

L OMBARD COLLEGE was one of the first educational institutions of the United States to offer its advantages to women. Lombard has consistently followed the broad policy thus established toward its women students. In 1895 the new "Hall" was built. This "Hall" is the college home of the Lombard girl. It resembles a big, cheerful home in every respect. The rooms are arranged in suites, and excellent provision is made that they may be light, warm and sanitary. The Lombard girl may room up on "third" in a large double chamber with two windows on the west and three on the south. She may be more conservative and come down on "second", where she has a beautiful outlook over the campus toward the main building. Again, she may prefer to live down on the main floor, where she will be absolutely alone with her work. But in any case

LOVE ALL"

THE LOMBARD GIRL'S ROOM

she has a big, light room, and from her windows always the view of the campus—the pride of every Lombard man and woman.

The life in the "Hall" is ideal. Aside from the regular college work, stunts such as children's parties, sewing bees, and the world-famous spread, are frequently indulged in. Hallowe'en brings with it a revival of all the old customs of fun-making. Hearts and dainty love missives are in evidence on St. Valentine's day. The great skill and artistic talent are them for parties. ¶ Mrs. Hale, and watches over the health and forces with a gentle but firm hand and force of numbers make nece-

"When the boys are away
The Lombard girls play."

hampered, however, with useless develop her true individuality. Galesburg, one of the chief rail-readily accessible from any part of however, from the business activ-suburban location. Because of centered, wholesome and enthusiastic. ¶ To enumerate some of the attractions Lombard offers to women : A scientific method in accordance with the best traditions of modern scholarly research has always characterized the study of the sciences at Lombard. In the courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science, a wise balancing of electives and requirements insures the acquirement by the student of the essentials of a broad culture.

large parlors are always open, and displayed by the girls in decorating dean of women, lives in the "Hall" happiness of each girl. She en-those rules which school duties sary. The Lombard girl is not rules of conduct, but left free to ¶ Lombard College is located in way centres of Illinois ; hence it is the State. Lombard is isolated, ities of the city, because of its this fact the college life is self-

HER GYMNASIUM WORK

Under the efficient direction of Professors Kelly L. Alexander and Arthur H. Arneke, the Department of Music is developing rapidly. Courses are offered in piano and voice, with instruction in violin and pipe organ for those who desire it. Several recitals and musicals are given during the year, special attention being paid to the cantata put on during Commencement week. ¶ The Gymnasium work is in charge of Excellent provision is made for the important feature of the work of tion during the year of plays from Recognizing that a well-developed tial accompaniment of a well-given to work in physical culture. the posing and Swedish dances. to all enthusiasts. ¶ For years on the staff of the "Lombard The Bartlett Peace Contest in co-ed, and the Townsend Decla- her. Just this year a Lombard the Springer Inter-Collegiate Contest held at Springfield. Some of Lombard's women have proved its most brilliant post-graduate students, doing excellent work in the women's eastern colleges, the State University, and the University of Chicago.

A JOLLY MOMENT

MRS. ADAH M. HALE
DEAN OF WOMEN AND MATRON LOMBARD LADIES' HALL

most essential part of college life is college spirit in connection with great crowds of ment of the moment, foot ball, base ball one phase of college spirit. The Lombard genuine conservative sort, the college spirit great love for her Alma Mater. Enthual the activities of the college spring from this loyalty. The co-ed is a part of every Lombard function, whether it be social, intellectual or athletic. She plans and gracefully carries out her parties. She enters into all the literary and research work. The athlete receives her heartiest support. It is such a life that makes her an essential part of the student body. This activity prepares her for life, for nation, for home.

Lombard College realizes the need of the nation—strong, broad-minded women. With the development of such a woman in view, Lombard offers her the best facilities of the college. She leaves her unbiased regarding her religion, gives her without prejudice the great truths of the social sciences. Just now there is strong reaction against the State University for the inexperienced girl, while the boarding school and girls' seminary are perceived to be narrowing, by thinking people. But most needs: freedom room for independent ready to solve the the small college offers the girl what she of contact with her fellow students, yet self-development. Lombard College stands problem of the girls' education. ¶ The spirit. We are inclined to think of college "rooters"—men crazy with the excitement track. This is but girl possesses the more that springs from a siasm and interest in

WHERE SHE ATTAINS POISE AND GRACE

Lombard, our fathers wrought
Out of their lives and thought,
 Thy life and worth.
Faith in God's fatherhood,
Faith in Man's brotherhood,
Faith in the coming good,
 Hallowed thy birth.

LOMBARD COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE FOR LADIES

THE LOMBARD GIRL
Her Home and Her Life

The Lombard Girl---her Home and her Life

LOMBARD COLLEGE

"THE COLLEGE THAT EDUCATES"

THE LOMBARD COLLEGE BULLETIN

SERIES X—NUMBER I

Issued Bi-monthly by Lombard College, Galesburg, Illinois—Entered at the Post Office as second class mail matter.

THE OLD BUILDING
From the East

Under the Elms.

I sit and dream and drink
The mild, delicious spring:
My thoughts go wandering:
How every leafy chink
Lets in a bit of blue,
The All-love shining through.

My thoughts go wandering:
Not frivolously, sirs;
An impulse in me stirs,
To mate me with the spring,
In calling everything
To bud and bloom and sing.

An impulse in me stirs—
Oh, do not smile at me
Who long to do and be—
A girl hath longings, sirs,
As wide and free as you
To dare and be and do.

THE HALL

The Lombard Girl---Her Home and Her Life.

LOMBARD COLLEGE was one of the first educational institutions of the United States to offer its advantages to women. Lombard has consistently followed the broad policy thus established toward its women students. In 1895 the "Hall" was built. This "Hall" is the college home of the Lombard girl. It resembles a big, cheerful home in every respect. The rooms are arranged in suites, and excellent provision is made that they may be light, warm, and sanitary. The Lombard girl may room up on "third" in a large double chamber with two windows on the west and three on the south. She may be more conservative and come down on "second", where she has a beautiful outlook over the campus toward the main building. Again, she may prefer to live down on the main floor, where she will be absolutely alone with her work. But in any case she has a big, light room, and from her windows always the view of the campus—the pride of every Lombard man and woman.

"LOVE ALL"

THE LOMBARD GIRL'S ROOM

The life in the "Hall" is ideal. Aside from the college work, stunts such as children's parties, sewing bees, and the world-famous "spread", are frequently indulged in. Hallowe'en brings with it a revival of all the old customs of fun making. Heart's and dainty love missives are in evidence on St. Valentine's ways open, and great skill and the girls in decorating them for the "Hall" and watches over the girl. She enforces with a gentle school duties and force of num- bard girl is not hampered, how- duct, but left free to develop her College is located in Galesburg, of Illinois; hence it is readily state. Lombard is isolated, how- of the city, because of its sub- fact the college is self-centered,

"When the boys are away
The Lombard girls play."

To enumerate some of the attractions Lombard offers to women: A scientific method in accordance with the best traditions of modern scholarly research has always characterized the study of the sciences at Lombard. In the courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science, a wise balancing of electives and requirements insures the acquirement by the student of the essentials of a broad culture.

day. The large parlors are al- artistic talent are displayed by parties. ¶ The Dean lives in health and happiness of each but firm hand those rules which bers make necessary. The Lom- ever, with useless rules of con- true individuality. ¶ Lombard one of the chief railway centres accessible from any part of the ever, from the business activities urban location. Because of this wholesome and enthusiastic.

THE HALL PARLOR

In the Department of Music, courses are offered in piano and voice, with instruction in violin and pipe organ for those who desire it. Several recitals and musicals are given during the year, special attention being paid to the concert put on during Commencement week. ¶ Excellent provision is made for portant feature of the work in tation, during the year, of plays um. ¶ Recognizing that a well- is an essential accompaniment tention is given to work in phys- this work are the posing and ket-ball are open to all enthu- held prominent places on the and on the "Stroller" board. The ry is open to the Lombard co-ed Contest is exclusively for her. have won places in the various Some of Lombard's women have graduate students, doing excel- ern colleges, the State University, and the University of Chicago. ¶ Lombard college realizes the need of the nation—strong, broad-minded women. With the development of such a wo- man in view, Lombard offers her the best facilities of the college. She leaves her unbiased re- garding her religion, gives her without prejudice the great truths of the social sciences. Just now there is a strong reaction against the State University for the inexperienced girl, while the boarding school and girl's seminary are perceived by thinking people to be narrowing. But the small college offers the girl what she most needs: freedom of contact with her fellow students, yet room for independent self development. Lombard College stands ready to solve the problem of the girl's education.

A JOLLY MOMENT

HER GYMNASIUM WORK

The most essential part of college life is college spirit. We are inclined to think of college spirit in connection with great crowds of "rooters"—men crazy with the excitement of the moment, foot-ball, base-ball or track. This is but one phase of college spirit. The Lombard girl possesses the more genuine conservative sort, the college spirit that springs from a great love for her Alma Mater. Enthusiasm and interest in all the activities of the college spring from this loyalty. The co-ed is a part of every Lombard function, whether it be social, intellectual or athletic. She plans and gracefully carries out her parties. She enters into all the literary and research work. The athlete receives her heartiest support. It is such a life that makes her an essential part of the student body. This activity prepares her for life, for nation, for home.

SUB JOVE FRIGIDO

The Lombard Hymn

Lombard, our fathers wrought
Out of their lives and thought,
 Thy life and worth.
Faith in God's fatherhood,
Faith in man's brotherhood,
Faith in the coming good,
 Hallowed thy birth.

So now with thankfulness
Come we thy name to bless,
 Flushed with youth's wine.
Here Friendship's holy name,
Here dreams and visions came,
Souls in Promethean flame,
 Here glowed divine.

Lombard, thy heralds, we
Speaking thy victory,
 Go forth with might;
Strong in thy mission clear,
Dispelling, far and near,
Darkness and doubt and fear
 With God and light.

